Revival At Methodist Church Progressing Under Vanderpool

BISHOP BOAZ TO PREACH
SUNDAY MORNING

The meeting is rapidly coming to its terminus. Those who have heard the messages are delighted with the content, and spirit in which they are delivered.

REV. HOMER VANDERPOOL, OF SANTA ANNA

Bro. Vanderpool's time is in demand and, naturally, we cannot hope to retain him in our community when he has urgent demands to be with his people at Santa Anna. We urge you to come tonight and do not miss the services further. In case you have been attending, you already have the desire not to miss when at all possible to attend.

The subjects for the remaining night services are: Thursday, "The Man Who Forgot." Friday, "Two Men, Ten Grasshoppers." Saturday "Turning the World Upside-down." And Sunday, "Man With Four Faces." Eight o'clock each evening, closing out Sunday.

BISHOP BOAZ TO PREACH

Bishop Boaz will bring the message at eleven o'clock Sunday A. M. and at two P. M. Basket dinner at the church Sunday 12:30. Those taking part in the spread may bring their baskets to the kitchen, rear basement door, where persons have been stationed to take your basket, prepare the plates and serve at the proper time and place. Church china and silverware will be used, eliminating the necessity of your furnishing these. Pass your baskets in as soon as arriving and get them after lunch hour. People are employed to serve the plates so you attend the services then enjoy your lunch with your friends.

The offering for the evangelist will be taken at the evening service Sunday. No high pressure collection, but he will appreciate your gift of love and appreciation.

By prayer, prepare your souls for a great feast Sunday and God will not disappoint you. We have looked forward to this day, now let's give thanks to God for His wonderful love.

HUGH A. LONGINO, Pastor.

JUNE PEACHES

For Sale—plenty of Early Wheeler June Peaches, commencing gathering June 6, at 75c per bushel.

C. A. Mischke, District representative for the Federal Tires, was in Hamlin this week and he appointed the Carl Young Station as the Federal House in Hamlin. Mr. Mischke wants you to see the "Stork" in this issue of the Herald.

HAMLIN HUNTERS FISHERS ORGANIZE

The Hamlin Chapter of the Game and Fish Protective Association was organized Monday afternoon. The object of this Association is the protection and restoration of our game and fish. We spend years of our time and lots of money each year killing off the game and catching the fish.

It would take only a small amount of this money and a very small amount of time to restore our game and fish. For instance, we are going to build traps to catch the turtles out of our lake. We can raise our fish and restock. We can build feeding grounds for our game birds, we can trap the crows out of our territory and kill the hawks.

The Association was organized with 11 members and now we have 26.

Those interested see Chuck McCurdy or George Howard and let's get started.

RETURNS WITH WIFE

Jim Malone, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Malone, of the Dovie community, made a trip to El Paso country last week and arrived home about 2:00 A. M. Saturday with a wife.

He was married on Thursday to Miss Edna Farrow, who formerly lived in Hamlin, on Central Avenue. Miss Farrow was a senior in the El Paso High School.

It is better to "borrow" the Herald than not read it at all. Pass it on. The borrower will take it some day.

Mrs. S. S. Caldwell returned to her home in Lamesa Monday, after a visit with her daughter, Mrs. John Ed Day.

MAN'S LEG MASHED AT PLASTER MILL

A very serious accident happened at the Plasterco Mill, Tuesday about noon when Floyd Wallace, who was working in the sacking room, got his foot entangled in a conveyer that severed it just above the ankle. Mr. Wallace was alone when the accident occurred, and he crawled to the head of the stairs and summoned aid. He was rushed to the Stamford Hospital where a further amputation was made. Thursday he was reported to be doing nicely.

It is said that the hot cement with which he was working, staunched the blood and perhaps saved his life. Mr. Wallace has been in the employ of the Plasterco Mill for about twelve years.

Mrs. J. C. Ellis, of Houston, Mrs. W. T. Patterson, of Abilene, and Mrs. Jeff Smith, of De Leon, Texas, are visiting the home of their sister, Mrs. John T. Day. Mrs. Ellis accompanied Mrs. Day home after she had visited her in Houston.

Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Roland and baby of Port Arthur, came Friday to visit their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Albritton. Mr. Roland returned home Saturday and Mrs. Roland and baby remained for a longer visit.

Mrs. Forest Boyd and daughter, Miss Margaret, left Saturday for Sweetwater where they will make their home.

CAFE INSTALLS AIR COOLING SYSTEM

The spirit of progress, modernism, and comfort is shown this week at the LONE STAR CAFE.

Carmichael Bros. began to operate the Lone Star Cafe about one year ago, and as the summer of 1935 rolls up they seem to remember the days of 1934, when all business houses and especially cafes were hot enough to cook eggs.

This week, when one enters their cafe, they feel an invigorating sensation, the air seems to be drifting down from some cool mountain top, you forget it's summer and you naturally recline in your chair in a "tempered" spirit.

All this is made possible in the Lone Star by the modern system of cooling with "conditioned" air. At a big cost they installed the system by having an opening made in the roof, over the front entrance, and erecting the intake room for the motors and the water sprays.

The Carmichaels come in for congratulations too, this week.

Miss Annie Laurie Johnson, a teacher in the Fort Stockton public schools returned home Sunday to spend the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. Wright Boyd and son, of Lamesa spent the week-end here with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Boyd.

Miss Janie Mae Johnson returned home Wednesday from Sioux City, S. D., where she has spent the year as a teacher in the public schools.

Miss Marie Pope, who has been teaching in the high school of Anson, is at home to spend the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bowen Pope.

HAMLIN FARMERS TO GET CHECKS

May 28, 1935.

County Agent Jobson has received approximately two thousand first rental checks on the 1934-1935 cotton acreage reduction contracts. He will be in his office each morning. Monday afternoon, June 3rd, at Hamlin Bank; Tuesday afternoon, June 4th, at Stamford Chamber of Commerce; and Wednesday afternoon, June 5th, at Lueder's Bank. Producers will please contact him at the most convenient of the above place to them, to get their checks.

These checks are only on renewed contracts. No checks have been received on new or split contracts.

The above is from MR. JOBSON.

W. C. Russell, accompanied by James Tate May, left Wednesday for Ruidosa, N. Mex., to visit his wife and sons, Jack and Teddy, and sister, Mrs. Cleve Dunn, who are spending the summer in that resort city.

Miss Ruby Phoenix, who has been teaching in the public schools of Stamford, returned Tuesday to spend the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Preston Phoenix.

PEACHES! PEACHES!

Beginning next week and probably all of June you can get some fine peaches at my farm 3 1/2 miles south-east of Rotan, and a mile south of the Hamlin-Rotan road. Remember if peaches you want, go to

C. BOND SMITH'S.

Miss Mary Boyd left Saturday for Waco where she will enter Baylor University. She was accompanied by her brother, W. L. Boyd, Jr. who went on to Houston to attend a two weeks' cotton school.

Complimenting M. T. York And His New Headquarters Store

THIS WEEK'S HERALD is dedicated to

MR. AND MRS. M. T. YORK

who are receiving compliments and congratulations from the business neighbors and friends of Hamlin and surrounding country, because primarily, of their grand opening of their beautiful

NEW HEADQUARTERS

Store in this city, which makes their Eleventh Store in West Texas.

A sketch of the business career of M. T. York sounds almost like fiction. It covers a little less than 16 years—it spreads over a variety of circumstances and conditions—it includes a period of life devoted to strenuous attention to business—and it demonstrates what one might do if they have the will-power and everlasting get-up-and-go, plus good management. This Saturday, June 2, 1935, the people of this community will have the pleasure of making their first purchases in the re-conditioned First National Bank building, and now the Headquarters for the eleven M. T. York Stores.

The doors of the new store were opened, formally, for the public, Thursday afternoon and night of this week—just a kind of "house warming." Everyone who saw this new place of business in Hamlin were expressive with compliments to Mr. and Mrs. York. It is useless to say that The Hamlin Herald joins each and everyone in congratulating the Yorks, for having made good in Hamlin and West Texas and for having selected Hamlin as their continued Home-Headquarters. Hamlin is complimented by the Yorks in many ways, and the Herald expresses for the general public our deep appreciation of a firm who came to our city and made good over almost unconquerable difficulties.

The story of M. T. York in this country is interesting. He is from the "piney woods" of the Lufkin country, full of energy but quite modest.

Last March, 15 years ago, M. T. York with his good wife and little one-year-old son, Marvin, arrived in Hamlin, after a short stop in Stamford. From almost the first day here, the Herald editor, made their acquaintance and from month to month and year to year, we have been closely associated with them, and therefore, today it is with a peculiar pride that we have the pleasure of giving the public this short sketch, for in our heart there is nothing that makes us happier than to see a worthy family make good in their effort against hardships.

Mr. York started his first store here in what is now the Hamlin Auto Supply House, located diagonally across the corner from the F. & M. National Bank, in what might be called the Howard block. In a very meek manner, Mr. York related a few days ago, "I only had a mere handful of goods, and no fixtures at all." And because houses were scarce then, as now, the family had to occupy the rear part of the building. At that time "little Marvin" was quite a "clerk." One year old, and what time he was not pulling at his mother's apron, he was pulling down "play-pretties" from the tables, and raising a rough house. Today that "kid" is one of Hamlin's 6 footers, a graduate of the High School this year, and with high honors, and What a Clerk?

Mr. and Mrs. York only used the first building a little less than a year and bought out the Brown Variety store, which place today is the M. T. York Store in Hamlin, which after this date will be known as Hamlin Store No. 1. It is this store that lives so closely in the hearts of the Yorks. It was from this building during the years that M. T. York, by the support of Hamlin and community, acquired the experience and the means to handle other stores in nine other towns. This building has been the scene of many hours of thought and labor—no wonder they resolve to maintain it for sentimental sake.

Six years in Hamlin and Mr. York had an opportunity to buy a Variety Store in Rotan, that was in January, 1926, and in February, of the same year, a store was for sale in Anson, and that store became M. T. York Store No. 3. Thus we see that while others were becoming discouraged and selling out, M. T. York was seizing the opportunity of getting a larger field. The Rotan store as well as the Anson store proved a success. They, with the home store, enabled Mr. York to buy in large quantities and while most of his sales were of small account, it was business for each article to reflect a small profit.

By the year 1929, and in the month of May, some folks began to feel the approach of what some may call the "Depression." The depression may not have been the cause, however, up in Crosby County, Crosbyton and Ralls, two stores offered for sale, and if one town up there was a good field for a store, Mr. York reasoned that both would be all the better. It was kindly like killing two birds with one stone. One trip to the plains would look after two stores. And to this day, it is a question as which store in Crosby County became York's 4th or 5th. But O, That Depression. In spite of banks going closed and jamming York's ready cash, he held on and fought all the harder. It was about this time that Mr. York, began his fast driving. It was on one of the trips to Crosby Co. that he got his mind on banks or something and let his car speed around a curve and turn over and almost severed one ear from his head, and that reminds us—York has had his share of auto wrecks. Three of them. But that was all in the game of going places in a hurry. Today he uses a dandy modern car that almost floats over the good roads, and roads far different to those of the early York stores.

It seemed that when a fellow desired to sell out a variety store, they turned to York or he had a premonition of it, and before one knew it he had his name emblazoned "M. T. York" in some other town.

Winters, Texas, appealed to Mr. York, and especially the hard road to that city. And Winter's M. T. York Store became his No. 6. That was in 1930.

Mr. York had a hunch that it would be well to pitch his efforts in various sections of West Texas, to be sure he gets in the rain when it comes. So we next hear of M. T.

York, up in Chillicothe City. A store was for sale up that way and "By Gosh," he bought it. That was in 1931, making store No. 7.

Next we find Mr. York locating a good store in the city of Graham, Texas, in May, 1932. What did the depression mean to a man like York? Why would he worry over the Hoover Days. His motto was "Sail On," with no excuse to turn back.

But after 1932, Mr. York slowed up and took soundings carefully. All about the storm was raging, business ships were sinking or disintegrating, no one seemed to know which way the "typhoon of the depression" would turn. So Mr. York sailed on but weighed anchor often and carefully.

By 1934 York began to see rifts in the stormy clouds of business and once again he began to "hove ahead." He found two good towns with good stores that needed a good sailor at their helm, and M. T. York became their captain.

In August of 1934 Mr. York closed a deal for a Sweetwater store, and that city has his No. 9 and just a month later over in the Breckenridge town, another chance presented itself. York took it as his No. 10.

By this time close friends of the Yorks hinted that their life was getting too strenuous, that they should stop and enjoy the circle that they had carved out. Then there was some talk of their leaving Hamlin and settling in some larger "school town." Their son was ready for college, and there was little Miss Bettye Lou. So, 1935 found Mr. and Mrs. York doing their hardest thinking, of all the years. "Shall we leave dear Hamlin, where we got out start? Shall we turn away from the people who have been our friends all these years? or shall we stay in HAMLIN and prove to the world that we are grateful?" Their hearts answered their own questions.

DARK DAYS WERE EXPERIENCED

Before this story goes further, the Herald would say, forcefully, that not ALL the "sailing" of the Yorks in Hamlin has been in a steady even wind, not always has the sunshine blessed their lives, indeed the reverse.

During these years, sickness, hospitals, operations, a new baby, and other things like tragic car wrecks have beset their "sail."

Mr. York has been confined to his home, through illness on about three or more occasions, once near death his neighbors loaded him into a car for the hospital, not expecting him back as a live business man again, and it was during these trying days on every occasion that Mrs. York carried on. And as the compliments go, she comes in for a big hand. She too has not all this time been active in the store. Little Miss Bettye Lou, now about eight years, came to join the force in Hamlin. Mrs. York was once near death because of a throat trouble and spent a long time at her old home in Lufkin, and while there underwent a major operation. Fortunately not both of the managers were out at the same time. We throw in these intimate details of the home life of the Yorks to show that it was not always "rosy and balmy" going and that really it took lots of grit and determination to ride over obstacles to success. And the story goes on.

Following the discontinuance of the First National Bank in Hamlin, the F. & M. Bank fell heir to that desirable building. It stood for months empty—kindly yearning for love-like occupancy.

Every day, M. T. York had to pass and re-pass this vacant building. Each day York's heart beat a little faster, his mind was at ease as to staying in Hamlin, and he would begin thinking what a nice place the Bank Building would make for a Headquarters Home. And it has been proven that when York's heart beats fast he soon gets into action. He felt the dry winds, saw the dust-laden skies, heard reports that it would never rain again, that perhaps the whole country was to become a desert—that the New Deal was a failure, that Hamlin would never be bigger because we had no water—and perhaps a thousand other things to discourage a man who felt "progress" in his bones. But York has a way of seeing above the "dust" and wet growing fields beyond the dry desert.

To the astonishment of Hamlin-ites, it was learned that M. T. York had signed a ten-year lease with the Bank for use of the building formerly occupied by the First National. A complete re-conditioning and extension was called for in the lease. It was to be remade, modernized for store-office-warehouse use.

Soon work went merrily on, a handsome front was set in, beautiful, walls, ceilings—were soon accompanied by specially built fixtures,

Mr. York by your determination, close attention to business and confidence, you have built up a fine business in West Texas

HITSON NEWS

Well, after a good rain the farmers are very busy. Everybody is working; killing some of the weeds we have in this part of the country. Mrs. Graham, of near Anson, visited her son, Delmer, Sunday. Bro. Charles Smith, Tom Hill and Grace Haught visited Mr. and Mrs. B. Slack Sunday.

Mrs. J. B. Slack is confined to her bed and is very ill at the present time. We hope she will soon be on the road to recovery.

Jesse M. Kelly, Jr., of Anson, visited his mother, Mrs. G. W. Calvert, last week.

Ray Kelley and wife and Mrs. G. W. Calvert visited Mrs. Terry Cooper in the Round Top community Sunday.

Bro. Reede from the First Baptist Church of Roby, preached the Baccalaureate Sermon at the Hamlin High School, Sunday, May 26.

Mr. J. W. Vance and Miss Allene Robertson were married at the home of Rev. Haught Friday night. We wish them much happiness as they go on in life.

Hadgie Kelley and wife visited in the home of R. J. Cox Sunday.

Brother Charles R. Smith, pastor of this church preached his last sermon Sunday night. He has accepted the pastorate at Everman near Fort Worth. Everybody was sorry to lose Bro. Smith but hope he will do a great work in his new field.

The P. T. A. of Hamlin will have their last play Friday night, May 31. The name of the play is, "Always In Trouble or the Hoodooed Coon." The cast of characters are as follows:

Misery Moon, a hoodooed Coon
Emory Williams
Giden Blair, a millionaire
Abner Daniels
Tom Rissel, as slick as a whistle
Charles Herring
Hiram Tutt, an awful nut

Churches and Church Activities

BUILDING NEWS OF NAZARENE CHURCH

To our friends who are wondering and asking why we have not gone ahead with our building after laying the foundation of our new church, we are coming to you with the information you have desired. We purchased a church in a neighboring town which we fully expected to use in the new building, at a price which would have enabled us to have gone right on with our work but the people we purchased the building from refused to deliver the building to us though they had our check for the price agreed upon in full. Their reason being that they decided to re-organize and call a pastor and begin again to worship in their building. And not desiring to hinder any sister church in their desire to worship in their own way, we let them have the building back upon terms agreed upon.

Hence the temporary delay, which we are happy indeed to tell you is only temporary, and will be back at work in a few days.

There is a friendly, if not anxious desire manifested among our friends outside our church, for our success among you, and that desire is being manifested in a way that it acts upon our hearts like the sun breaking through the lowering clouds of dark cold day, and we thank everyone for every dollar given, for every kind word spoken, for every handclasp along the way. God bless everyone of you.

Our District Superintendent, Rev. V. B. Atteberry, will preach for us at the eleven o'clock hour Sunday. You are invited to hear him.

J. H. WHITAKER, Pastor.

G. S. HOPKINS WILL SPEAK IN ANSON SUNDAY

G. S. Hopkins, State Sunday School Secretary, will be the main speaker at the monthly meeting of the Jones County Associational Sunday School, convening at Anson, Sunday, June 2, at 3:00 P. M.

The conference theme will be "The Church and the Sunday School." The program is as follows: 3:00, Song service; 3:10, devotional; 3:20, business, recognition of churches, and report study; 3:30, simultaneous conferences for all general officers except Beginners and Cradle Roll teachers; 3:50, address; 4:15, adjourn.

Rev. N. J. Westmoreland, associational superintendent, urges that do the preaching. He has been in

ACHIEVEMENT DAY

On May 21st the Swedonia H. D. Club met with Misses Lillie and Gertrude Young. Our agent, Miss Evelyn Jennings, met with us. Our President called the house to order and roll call was answered by 11 members. Then Mrs. J. M. Dodds was admitted to membership. Mrs. Norma Crowley was a visitor.

We voted to sell ice cream and candy at the school play the following Friday night.

First on our program was, "Welcome to Mother" by Mrs. R. M. Young; "Response" by Mrs. E. R. Rector; "Story of Wardrobe Demonstration" by Miss Gertrude Young.

We inspected Miss Gertrude's clothes closet and found it up-to-date and very nice, especially the three big drawers that open into her bedroom. Her bedroom is very pretty also. Next came the dress contest. Seven members had dresses. These dresses were all so well made it was hard to decide which were best. Mrs. R. M. Young got first place, Mrs. E. C. Young and Mrs. Tarlton Willingham, 2nd and 3rd places.

Miss Jennings then criticized each dress, on color, design, fit, stitching, seams, facing, belts, buckles, buttons and button holes.

During social hour the Misses Young served lemonade, sandwiches and cake to Mesdames R. M. Young, E. C. Young, Tarlton Willingham, Jerry Crowley, B. C. Carriker, J. M. Dodds, Norman Crowley, H. J. Jackson, R. T. Cypert, W. R. Sipes, E. R. Rector, several children and themselves.

On May 7th this club met with with Mrs. Tarlton Willingham with eight present. Reporter was absent therefore this is short and late.

Miss Vera Culbertson came home from Mangum, Oklahoma, where she had been teaching Dramatics in the high school.

—It Pays to Look Over the Ads.

Mrs. Paul Fraser of Munday, is spending the week here with her parents.

Miss Lucile Owen left Sunday for Albuquerque, New Mexico, to visit her sister, Mrs. Sam Alford, and to enter the university in that city.

Miss Hortense Phoenix is at home after several weeks' stay in Anson.

WHAT THE SOUTH HAMLIN CLUB IS DOING

Turpentine applied to felt hats removes perspiration stain said Mrs. L. B. Maberry in her report of the Council Meeting to the South Hamlin Home Demonstration Club at a regular meeting in the home of Mrs. Ed Johnson, May 22.

The faithful Lux bath was advised for our silks. Printed silks should be ironed on the right side to bring out the sheen while solids should be ironed on the wrong side to prevent shining.

Miss Bristow reported on the Lubbock Meat Show. One mistake in canning meat is using iron in preparing it for the can.

PROTECT YOUR LIFE AND THE LIVES OF OTHERS!

There are three questions you should ask yourself about the tires you buy:

- 1—"Will the non-skid tread give me the greatest traction and protection against skidding?"
- 2—"Are they built to give me the greatest blowout protection?"
- 3—"Without sacrificing these two important safety features will they give me longer mileage, thus making them the most economical tires I can buy?"

Answer No. 1—Harvey S. Firestone early realized the value of tire traction and safety and was the first to design an All Rubber Non-Skid Tire. Through the years Firestone has led the way in the design and development of tires with most effective non-skid treads.

Firestone does not depend solely on traction and non-skid tests made by its own engineers—it employs a leading University to make impartial tests for non-skid efficiency of its tires, and their most recent report shows that Firestone High Speed Tires stop the car 15% quicker than the best of all popular makes of tires.

Answer No. 2—Blowout protection must be built into a tire. Friction and heat within the tire is the greatest cause of blowouts. Firestone protects its tires from friction and heat by a patented process which soaks every cord and insulates every strand with pure liquid rubber. This is an additional process known as Gum-Dipping, by which every 100 pounds of cotton cords absorb eight pounds of rubber. This extra process costs more and is not used in any other make of tire.

Leading race drivers investigate the inbuilt qualities of the tires they use, because their very lives depend upon their tires, and they always select Firestone Tires for their daring speed runs. In fact, Firestone Tires have been on the winning cars in the gruelling Indianapolis 500-mile race for fifteen consecutive years, and they were on the 5,000-pound car that Ab Jenkins drove 3,000 miles in 23½ hours on the hot salt beds at Lake Bonneville, Utah, at an average speed of 127.2 miles per hour, without tire trouble of any kind. These amazing performance records are proof of the greatest blowout protection ever known.

Answer No. 3—Thousands of car owners reporting mileage records of 40,000 to 75,000 miles, is proof of the long mileage and greater economy by equipping with Firestone High Speed Tires. Let these unequalled performance records be your buying guide.

Go to the Firestone Auto Supply and Service Store or Firestone Tire Dealer and let him equip your car with Firestone Tires, the safest and most economical tires built.

Volume—Direct Purchasing—Straight Line Manufacturing and Efficient and Economical System of Distributing to our 500 Stores and to 30,000 Dealers, enables Firestone to give you greater values at lowest prices

NEINDA NEWS

Most all of the farmers are trying to get their cotton planted before it rains again.

Mr. and Mrs. Terry Brown and daughter, Erma, of Anson, visited relatives here Sunday. Mrs. J. H. (Grandma) Brown returned home with them to spend the week.

Mrs. John Brown and mother, J. J. Wilemon, are visiting Mrs. George Tuggle, in Oklahoma, this week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Westmoreland and little son, Billy Guy, of Flat Top, were visitors here Sunday.

Miss Ina Bell Rodgers has returned from Gorman, where she has been visiting since school was out.

Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Rodgers, of Gorman, were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Rodgers.

Those enjoying dinner Sunday with Margaret Clair Alexander were: Nellie Mae Scott, Atha Lene Tollison, Marylee Winslett, Dena Myrle Rodgers, Harrison (Red) Watson, Loy Hubbard, John Kent Jones, Cecil Sellers and her brother, Tootie.

Mildred Tollison came home Thursday morning to spend the day with her grandmother, Mrs. L. R. Williams, and we were all very glad to see her.

ASKING BIG MONEY FOR HIWAYS

AUSTIN, Texas, May 28.—In a determined effort to obtain $100,000,000 for gap-closing on Texas highways before the Centennial and the opening of the Mexico City road, Harry Hines, new chairman of the State Highway Commission, will head a delegation of Texas leaders to Washington in mid-June, he has announced.

His hope is to impress the federal building of modern highways in Texas can provide more and better and quicker employment than weed-cutting, ditching or many of the other former CWA activities. It can do this, he contends, with minimum waste or abuses, and the result will be useful, permanent, revenue-producing facilities.

Accompanying Chairman Hines to the capitol will be other commissioners, Gibb Gilchrist, state highway engineer, Col. Ike Ashburn of the Texas Good Roads Association and envoys from many other groups.

Gov. James V. Allred favors utilization of unemployment relief in Texas, and has wired his view to President Roosevelt.

"Well over 90 per cent of the Texas road dollar goes to labor either on the job or in the factories, mills and pits behind it," Mr. Hines explained, "and this is why we hope to get some of the money from purely temporary relief projects shifted to it."

"Texas should get over $50,000,000 for roads and grade separations from appropriations already made, and we will ask for $40,000,000 more. We have the plans all ready for badly-needed roads that will exceed this amount, and we can get them under way swiftly."

The highway chairman explained that he has no thought of disturbing the many worthwhile city and community projects to be presented through PWA, but only random and unplanned work relief.

THE COMFORT OF NATURAL GAS

GAS ADVERTISEMENT TELLS
TWENTY-FIVE YEARS OF PROGRESS

A quarter of a century in developing complete natural gas service is depicted in an advertisement of the Lone Star Gas System and affiliated companies, published in this week's issue of the Hamlin Herald.

Twenty-five years ago natural gas was virtually unknown in Texas. Wood coal and kerosene fires did the cooking and heating, except in the larger cities where manufactured gas carried considerable of the cooking load. In those days smoking chimneys were a sign of prosperity, and soot-laden cities accepted their murky atmosphere because they didn't know any better. Today all Texas cities using gas are served with natural gas.

Then in 1909 L. B. Denning organized the Lone Star Gas Company and in the fall of the same year started the first long distance pipeline in Texas. This line, running from Petrolia to Fort Worth and Dallas, a distance of 135 miles, was completed in February, 1910, and service was started to Fort Worth in that month, reaching Dallas in April, 1910. From that time, through many struggles, the system has spread over a territory larger than some states and reaches even out of the way villages, bringing a modern gas service to small towns equal in quality to that enjoyed by the cities.

From one pipeline and 15,000 customers, the company has grown into an interconnected system of 4,000 miles of line serving about 300 towns and cities. From an uncertain and at times inadequate gas supply, through years of struggle for gas reserves, financial difficulties, labor shortage and serious engineering problems, the company has worked its way up to the type of natural gas service known at present throughout this territory.

The advertisement published in this paper sketches the pipeline system, indicates the towns where the company maintains offices, shows a few of the high spots in the company's history, and pictures modern gas equipment now available.

TWENTY-FIVE years ago the Lone Star Gas System (of which your Gas Company is a part) struck out across country with pick and shovel in a four-foot trench, to pipe some North Texas natural gas into Fort Worth and Dallas. They were the pioneers in this part of the country, and many were the problems they had to work out, digging away through black waxy, limestone, rivers and woods. It took years of work and planning, large investments, great engineering skill, and a great deal of courage to thread this network of dependable gas supply to nearly 300 towns in Texas and Oklahoma.

Southwesterners Snap Up New Inventions

People have used more gas than we dreamed of in the beginning, because of the new inventions they have snapped up. Imagine our surprise when even the Refrigerators began running with gas. There have been remarkable inventions in industrial gas equipment, from oil refineries to automobile jannanning-ovens. There are House-Heating Systems that clean and moisten the air, as well as warm it; there are Clothes Dryers, Radiators, Floor Furnaces, Automatic Ranges, Incinerators, and so forth. For running a cement plant to warming a baby's bath, these Lone Star towns enjoy an automatic heat that has made their skylines famous for their smokeless chimneys.

A quarter of a century of careful planning has made natural gas so low-priced at your meter that 15 cents' worth a day is the average household load the year around, for heating, cooking, hot water and refrigeration.
